Hovercraft Launched To Dog Walkers On Mud.

Southend on sea's RNLI volunteer lifeboat crew launched the search and rescue hovercraft from the inshore boathouse at 11.51hrs, to reports from Thames Coastguard of three people and two dogs in danger of being cut off by the incoming tide at Leigh.

The lifeboat crew launched and made their way towards the given position of 600yds offshore by The Wilton.

The hovercraft arrived on scene to find the three adults and their dogs crossing the last gutway and making for the shore.

The volunteer crew stayed on scene until all were safely ashore, before returning to station.
